4a (Code) (Expenses $ 19,186,683 including grants of $ 1,196,751) (Revenue $ 5,105,817)

Historic Sites - The National Trust and its partners are the stewards of 27 National Trust Historic Sites, a nationally-significant collection of historic places that represent a wide variety of architectural styles and structures, magnificent landscapes, remarkable object collections and diverse stories that bring American history to life. In 2014 the National Trust owned and managed 12 of these sites (one through a long-term lease), owned 9 sites that are managed by independent local organizations, and provided limited support to six other sites that are owned and managed by other entities. These historic sites are open to the public with more than 900,000 visitors annually. The history, stories, people, collections, architecture and landscapes of these sites are interpreted to on-site visitors, and through social media, websites and written communication to many more people. The sites serve their communities by providing educational programs, events and unique gathering places for community residents. The National Trust and its partner organizations maintain the sites as good models of historic preservation, collections management, interpretation and comprehensive stewardship.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part II, Line 3	One conservation easement was amended during 2014 The amendment was processed in accordance with the National Trust's Easement Amendment Policy and constituted a minor modification and was consistent with the preservation purpose of the conservation easement The conservation easement was not donated pursuant to Section 170 (h) of the IRC When the National Trust created the conservation easement, it unintentionally encumbered a right of way/access easement through an adjacent property In releasing the encumbrance on the right of way/access easement, the National Trust required the conservation easement's protection to be broadened over additional unprotected open space Less than 1000 square feet of property was affected by the amendment
Schedule D, Part II, Line 4	Number of states where properties subject to conservation easements are located = 24 plus the District of Columbia for a total of 25
Schedule D, Part II, Line 5	The National Trust's Board-established easement policy sets out general standards for acquisition, inspection and enforcement These policies are reflected in easement deeds, authorizing inspection rights and full enforcement powers The National Trust physically inspects its easements on a regular basis In addition to physical monitoring, the National Trust also monitors properties through the provision of technical advice to property owners related to the care and maintenance of their property Also, the National Trust using the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties, reviews the existing condition of a property whenever it receives a request to make a change or alteration from a property owner The National Trust enforces restrictions in easements, including through legal action when necessary
Schedule D, Part II, Line 9	Expenses relating to the administration of the National Trust's easement program are included as program-related expenses on the Statement of Functional Expenses The value of easements is not included on the Statement of Financial Position
Schedule D, Part III, Line 1	The Trust follows the accounting practice of not including in its assets the cost or appraised value of any of its historic sites, which upon receipt may be retained by the Trust Related expenditures for restoration, stabilization, reconstruction and development are charged to expense as incurred Properties accepted with the intent of sale are recognized as revenue at the time of receipt at the estimated fair value less costs for historic evaluation, repair, maintenance costs and impact of the easement The historic sites, including objects and furnishings owned by the Trust with the intent of retention are not reported in the accompanying balance sheets under the accounting policy stated above
Schedule D, Part III, Line 4	The National Trust owns certain historic sites that are operated as museums or are otherwise integral to the Trust's charitable and educational preservation program These historic sites, most of which contain significant collections of furnishings, are regularly open to the public
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The National Trust's endowment funds are used to support the costs of maintaining its historic sites, for grants to preservation organizations and similar purposes and to support the variety of National Trust's charitable and educational programs and activities A portion of the endowment is unrestricted and used for general operating support for the organization

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The Trust accounts for uncertain tax positions in accordance with FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 740, Income Taxes (ASC 740), which requires that a tax position be recognized or derecognized based on a "more likely than not" threshold. This applies to positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The Trust does not believe its financial statements include any material uncertain tax positions. The Trust is still open to examination by taxing authorities from fiscal year ended June 30, 2012 forward.
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 4b	Cost of goods sold of 412,226 plus special event expenses of 221,991 for a total of 634,217
