Schedule D, Part II, Line 5 - The National Trust's Board-established easement policy sets out general standards for acquisition, inspection and enforcement. These policies are reflected in easement deeds, authorizing inspection rights and full enforcement powers. The National Trust physically inspects its easements on a regular basis. In addition to physical monitoring, the National Trust also monitors properties through the provision of technical advice to property owners related to the care and maintenance of their property. Also, the National Trust using the Secretary of the interior's Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties, reviews the existing condition of a property whenever it receives a request to make a change or alteration from a property owner. The National Trust enforces restrictions in easements, including through legal action when necessary.

Schedule D, Part II, Line 9 - Expenses relating to the administration of the National Trust's easement program are included as program-related expenses on the Statement of Functional Expenses. The value of easements is not included on the Statement of Financial Position.

Properties accepted with the intent of sale are recognized as revenue at the time of receipt at the estimated fair value less costs for historic evaluation, repair, maintenance costs and impact of the easement. The historic sites, including objects and furnishings owned by the Trust with the intent of retention are not reported in the accompanying balance sheets

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Historic Preservation & Conservation: Membership Outreach - Educate the general public on the importance of and techniques of preserving the nation's architectural and cultural heritage.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 6 - The National Trust for Historic Preservation in the United States is a member organization with 154,874 members.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 7a - The Organization's members have the right to elect the members of the Board of Trustees (other than statutory ex-officio Trustees). Elections are conducted at an annual membership meeting held in conjunction with an annual conference in the Fall.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - A copy of the Organization's 990 was provided to all members of the Organization's Board of Trustees before it was filed. The process for review was as follows: The form is prepared by staff and reviewed by management and the Independent accounting firm BDO. The draft is then made available to the Audit Committee and all board members (either digitally or in hard copy, depending on their preference). Any changes following these reviews were again reviewed by BDO before the final 990 was filed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - The Organization's conflict of interest policy is sent to the board members once a year with a disclosure form that asks Trustees to describe interest in or relationships with both for-profit entities and to describe any transactions (direct or indirect) with the Organization. Trustees are also required to disclose annually any business or family relationships with other Trustees and with Officers and Key Employees of the Organization (identified by name), consistent with the disclosure obligation of Part VI, Line 2. Trustees are regularly reminded of their obligation under the policy for potential transactions. The policy also provides a process for review of potential conflicts.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - The Organization's Compensation Subcommittee of the Executive Committee reviews compensation of the President and top management staff (including Officers and Key Employees). All members of the Compensation Subcommittee are independent members of the Board of Trustees. The Organization regularly engages with an independent consultant to prepare a compensation study and comparability analysis, and such information for the Officers and Key Employees is made available to the Compensation Subcommittee. The Compensation Subcommittee approves compensation of the President in advance and in writing. Compensation of the other Officers and Key Employees is reviewed by the Compensation Subcommittee but is set by the President.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - The Organization makes digital copies of the Statutory Charter, Bylaws, Conflict of Interest Policy, Whistleblower Policy, Audit Committee Charter, Form 990, Form 990-T and current Audited Financial Statements available on its website, www.savingplaces.org under "about us/governance." These documents are also made available to any person in hard copy upon request.
